

I ADAMANTLY support limiting the number of radio and TV stations & other media one person or company can own. You people need to do your jobs properly. Quit relaxing the regs that protect consumers from media monopolies that destroy diversity in news, information, and music. You would have us live in a horribly homogenized culture of bland sameness. What is the matter with you???